assumed the name of L. N. Carter, and went to New York with a woman named Mary Jane Burpee, taking also his with a woman named Mary Jane Burpee, taking also his children, Lizzie Florence, aged 7½ years, and his two sons, Fred Elmer and Frank Weston Carr, the boys being younger than their sister. Carr, with the children and Burpee woman, left New York on the steamer "Henry Chauncey," having purchased through tickets to Wellington, New Zealand. It is reported that the children have been sent to a Catholic school, and one George E. Lane wrote from San Francisco to New Hampshire, in 1867, that he had recognized Carr, alias Carter, in a theater in that city. Carralius Carter, has since been heard of in Texas, it being said that he and Lane were faro dealers there. In Texas, as also in Colorado, Carr was known as Steele. Carr's wife is a nurse in San Francisco, a heart-broken woman seeking ber children, and desiring to obtain news of her offspring, begs the press to circulate the above. Any intelligence begs the press to circulate the above. Any intelligence regarding Carr, or more particularly his disposition of the children, if forwarded to H. R.
